Adam replaced our boiler a few months earlier and we did not hesitate to use him again for new bathroom. His work is of a high standard and completed within the estimated time schedule. He is friendly, courteous, tidy and trustworthy. We would not hesitate to use him again or to recommend him. Customer in Epsom, 15 March 2012

Fix a leak to inflow of toilet cistern and replace a faulty stopcock

10 / 10

Was pleasantly surprised how quickly he was able to fix both problems - so came in cheaper than I feared it could have been. Turned up on time - both jobs carried out very efficiently and tidily. We've used Adam before - we can trust him, he's very professional and very personable. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend him. Whilst I'm hoping for a prolonged period of trouble free plumbing - if something should go wrong, Adam is who I would be calling if it did. Customer in Epsom, 21 February 2012
