Emergency call out. Excellent service. Discovered the problem late Saturday evening. As it required the water to the house being turned off, I phoned immediately and he promptly arranged to come the following morning, a Sunday. I was so very grateful. Friendly and professional. Gave a clear explanation of the cause of the problem and advised steps to avoid it occurring again. Would not hesitate to recommend and will keep his business card safe so we can contact again when necessary. Customer in Exeter, 5 February 2012
