Fitted wardrobes and bedroom furniture 10 / 10

I can highly recommend Thomas and his work. The planning process was very easy, he visited several times and was accomodating when I wanted to change a couple of points before starting. The construction was easy, each day the team worked long hours and cleaned up after themselves completely. The project was finished promptly and did not mind coming back a couple of times to put on the finishing touches. Overall a great experience! Customer in London, 30 March 2012
