Most Recent Customer Feedback

New lights in kitchen and tidying up old wiring

10 / 10

The maximum scores are a true reflection of their work. They fitted me in to accommodate me which these days is not always so. I had some extra work done and was initially slightly disappointed about the price. However, after mentioning this, Adam and Jo gave me the explanation and a small refund. Their customer relations are excellent and you get the feeling that they really care about their reputation and customer satisfaction. I can recommend them wholeheartedly.

Fitting of sockets and lighting to loft and sockets to conservatory

10 / 10

A great company. Adam very knowledgeable and talked through all the options at quotation stage. Good team, a super job and left the place how they found it. One slight problem came up but it was thoroughly explained why and how and I was happy with the outcome. I will certainly use them for any future work I need.

Safety Inspection New Property

10 / 10

We moved into a repossessed property on 20/01 and had ALB attending for a safety inspection on the electrical system. A total of 21(!) defects were found, which he fully explained, mostly as a result of overzealous DIY by previous occupant. Adam rectified immediate dangers and safety items promptly and gave us the available options to rectify the remainder. Will definitely use again to complete the outstanding and/or future work.

Replaced Consumer Unit, Testing, Repair and Replacement. Fitting new ceiling and wall lights 9.8 / 10

Estimated received when expected, work commenced and completed as indicated. Very friendly and competent staff. We thought the rates charged were very reasonable and so pleased to have high quality local skilled tradesmen with prompt attention from the "back office". On our list for recommendation. Customer in Eastleigh, 19 January 2012

Electrical safety check and some rewiring work fitting new storage heater 10 / 10

Really pleased with the standard and would recommend to others. Glad to have found a good tradesman. Customer in Southampton, 6 October 2011
