Garden makeover and construction of raised beds — 10 / 10

We are extremely pleased with all the work that Simon and his team carried out for us. The raised beds are excellent and Simon made wooden decorative structures for the climbing plants which add greatly to the look of the garden. We feel all the advice given while work carried on was helpful and we achieved more than hoped for. Alfresco Art is a professional and hard working team which we are happy to recommend to others. Customer in Horsham, 22 February 2012
