Plastering and painting 10 / 10

I would highly recommend this company. This is the fourth time that I have used them and each time they have taken care over the work with excellent results. The team are reliable and kept me informed of their progress. I felt perfectly happy to leave them the keys to my property so they could get on with the job while I was at work. Well worth the money. After years of dealing with dodgy builders hired by managing agents it has been great to find a company who really care about their customers and treat them with respect. Customer in Brighton, 9 February 2012

Very considerate and professional builders. They came on time and did a very professional job on a very tight schedule and everything was done before Christmas in time. Customer in Hove, 19 December 2011
