Felt and Battened, tiled and did all lead work for two different roof sections.

From the quotation stage right through to job completion Paul was extremely professional and a pleasure to deal with. His standard of work was exceptional and I would recommend Avalon roofing to anyone. My work consisted of a brand new roof on an extension that needed to be matched and integrated into the existing roof and a brand new single story section. Both sections were done superbly and the lead work was the best I have seen. Customer in Crowthorne, 10 December 2011
