Roof maintenance work

9.5 / 10

They was pleasant and professional. They came when they said they would and completed the work on time. They even found an additional problem that they fixed at no extra cost. My only complaint was that the scaffolding was left over night instead of being collected at the end of the day and to be fair that was not their fault; Travis Perkins were to blame. Customer in Bournemouth, 23 March 2012
