This is the second time I have used this company now and I got the same great service and results. I don't know much about cars and what needs doing or not but these guys don't give off that intimidating atmosphere that I have experienced In some companies/garages were you feel like you've walked into some exclusive lads club. They were very welcoming, friendly and over all gave a great service. Customer in Portsmouth, 17 January 2012
