Fitted a brand new ensuite into bedroom

9.5 / 10

This was the second time we'd used this company, because we had such a good experience before on a very long and involved job. When we moved in we desperately needed a new ensuite upstairs, but there was nothing there at all. Chris and his team came to our rescue and pulled out all the stops to get us one quickly. They worked around the tricky flat layout, all the issues that come with an old building and wonky walls. They created a beautiful and posh shower room in less than a week from start to finish. The real thing that Chris has which is special is the quality of his finishing. He's a real perfectionist and it shows. If you want something done to a high standard at a fair price then you couldn't get a better company. Customer in Portland, 17 April 2012
