Rear extension to lounge, and new patio 9.8 / 10
I found Clive and his team to be very polite, on time and very fast workers. His initial quote was very competitive and changes to this came only as a result of us changing our minds as we went along on some areas - he accommodated all our changes, often advising us on a better option and keeping us up to date with any additional costs as we went along. I liked that fact that he was always on hand for advice, and put us in touch with some great contacts too. I would recommend him to others.
