Internal Painting 10 / 10
 I was away on holiday when James carried out this work. I was very impressed that there was very little mess to clear up when I got back. They had moved or covered furniture, taken shelves, pictures and curtain rails down and put them back up. In fact everything was as it had been, except all my rooms upstairs had been painted. A good quality job, all the more impressive that I wasn't around. I'll definitely be using James again. Customer in Camberley, 30 January 2012
