Simon of Clabo visited quoted for the work gave advise and did not pressure me to order, his staff arrived on time and got on with the work the fitter was painstaking to carry out a quality job they took away all the old units, and could'nt do enough to satisfy me and were insistant that I examined the work and it was to my satisfaction .Simon came the next day to check the workmanship himself, also confirming that we were happy. In my opinion a very good company I am pleased to recommend, in an industry that often leaves a lot to be desired . Mr M Dirkin Customer in Bournemouth, 19 April 2012
