Chimney Sweeping

10 / 10

This is the first time I've had a chimney swept and I would thoroughly recommend Paul. When I called to book he was actually on holiday, but I left a message and he called me as soon as he was back. He was very helpful on the phone and he fitted me in at a time that was convenient for me, despite it being a bit later in the day. When he turned up (exactly on time) he had a look up the chimney to size up what was needed and he even knew by looking at the soot, what sort of fuel I burned. He was polite and a delight to chat to! He was a very clean worker and was done very quickly. The price he charged me was lower than the prices I'd found in my investigations online. I would thoroughly recommend Paul and I'll definitely be getting him to sweep my chimney again next year. Customer in Chichester, 25 January 2012

Paul arrived early and was very thorough, clean, tidy and knowledgeable. He charged a fair price and kept me informed throughout the process so I would recommend him without hesitation. Customer in Chichester, 19 December 2011

Cleaned our chimney

10 / 10

It was a delight to have Paul round to clean our chimney. Not only was he 100% professional, he was courteous, polite and friendly. I was very interested in what he was going to do as I have never seen someone sweep a chimney before and he explained everything well. He paid particular attention to cleanliness and made sure that any soot and debris was caught in his protective sheet, meaning that no mess whatsoever was left behind. I asked if he wanted to wash his hands afterwards and he had even brought his own towel with him to dry them on. Both my wife and I were at home at the time of his visit and over a cup of tea we had a great time talking to him about his travels and of course little boys being forced up the chimney in by-gone years! It was a pleasure to meet Paul, and since his visit we have had several happy clean-burning wood fires in the fireplace in our new country home. We would recommend Paul without delay such was the quality of his work, his clean working manner and his friendly attitude. Thanks Paul! Merry Christmas to you! Customer in Chichester, 19 December 2011
