Very friendly and efficient company. The work was done to very high standard. Wayne found a fault with the glass and door that I didn't even notice and didn't hesitate to order new ones so the end result would be perfect. Customer in Crawley, 9 December 2011

A very professional job with as little disruption to us as possible considering such a major project. I had expected to have to redecorate around the installations, but the finish was so tidy at the end this was not necessary. Customer in Horley, 3 November 2011
