Updating an existing kitchen

10 / 10

The name of this company is just what you get, a damn fine kitchen! Pat is a skilled and patient man who takes care to explain, and if needed will advise a better solution to any problems. He works round the people in the house gets on with the job. It does not get better than that. Customer in Mitcham, 1 February 2012

New sink and drainer installed.

10 / 10

He has done work for us before so we had no hesitation in asking him to do more, a pleasure to work with and keen to satisfy customer. I would recommend this company. Customer in London, 8 November 2011

New bathroom which everyone thinks is excellent.

10 / 10

Had a total refurb on my bathroom, including having work done on the ceiling. The finished result is excellent and Pat has asked if he can take some pictures to which I have agreed. They got on with the work, made some suggestions on what would work better (it was a very small area). Customer in Sutton, 3 June 2011

Replace kitchen

10 / 10

The work done comprised demolishing the existing kitchen, replacing and repositioning the boiler. Work done was to a very high standard and where required a specialist tradesman was brought in to do electricity and plumbing. Pat is a very pleasant who listens to what you say then make suggestions where appropriate. I'd recommend him for everything. Customer in Sutton, 15 January 2011
