New ceiling, and complete replaster of whole kitchen

10 / 10

This was quite a complicated job, with boxing in of new RSJs required, as well as a new ceiling, and a complete replaster of the whole kitchen. The kitchen has several sections to it, with arches etc. Rob did a great job - can't recommend him highly enough. Fantastic finish to all the walls and ceiling. As well as being very skilful, Rob is very organised and methodical - would be great if some of the other people we've been working with on the kitchen refurb had the same approach! Customer in Banstead, 4 April 2011

Very clean and tidy, all finished work to a high standard considering the awkward nature of work and conditions. Customer in Godstone, 24 March 2011
