Oak work top fitted 10 / 10

Excellant work done fitting my oak work top, Del and his team were extremely particular with their work, professional at all times and the quality of the work is brilliant. I would definaltely recommend them. Customer in Worthing, 4 April 2012

Repair to spa bath / re sealing bathroom 10 / 10

A difficult job completed in very good time!!! Del sourced the parts required, liaised with the supplier to obtain all relevant information, chased me for a time to complete the job, installed the part and resealed the bath area. The job was very well priced, great value and completed to a high standard. Communication and helpfulness of tradesmen made the experience very easy. An excellent job!!! Customer in Worthing, 25 August 2011

Complete bathroom refit and exterior pipe wok 10 / 10

Please, please take a few minutes and read this.....

Del started our work as a guy we wanted to employ ... and (trust me) I am not the easiest person to work for!

Of the five or six quotations we received, he was the only person to take real time listening to what we were trying to achieve, he offered some very sound advice, took full notes and measurements for our requirements and his written quotation reflected his total understanding of our requests.

From the outset not only was his work first class but he understood what a 'picky' ba*tard I am ... and he never let me down. I wanted to know why this and that was done and Del explained everything to me so much so that I feel I could now go out and install bathrooms myself!

For our job he involved a couple of other tradesmen and they were just as 'up-front' and honest as Del was. No one really likes having to have guys working in one's house but when Del had finished our fantastic bathroom ... we missed him!

So, my advice would be; if you want a first class job from a man who respects your property and is thoroughly trustworthy ... look no further. Customer in Worthing, 1 August 2011

En-suite bathroom completely revamped

10 / 10

Del was prompt in providing a quote and very amenable to some minor changes I requested; he was also willing to discuss alternate methods of completing the work. He and his team, were very clean and tidy, they were left in the property for an extended period and proved completely trustworthy, their workmanship and quality of final finish are excellent. He has attended to a couple of minor points I raised with promptness and at no cost. Customer in Worthing, 23 July 2011
