Got boiler working again 0 / 10

Couldn't be better. He arrived on time, diagnosed the problem and fixed it within the hour. He charged me the fee he quoted on the phone. I was so impressed I booked him on the spot to carrying out further work.

Fixing toilets, tap and radiator, and putting in outdoor tap. 9 / 10

Our jobs were all quite minor and involved a bit of 'diagnostics'. Ian got to the root of the problem in each case and explained the physics of what was going wrong really well so that, even in the cases where the issue couldn't be completely cured (e.g because of water pressure or the style of radiator we'd chosen), we at least understood what was going on with our water system.

Replaced kitchen tap 10 / 10

Ian said his colleague would arrive around 12 noon and he was bang on time. Nick, I think he was called, was very efficient and a nice lad too. The price was as per the quote and we'll certainly be using them again. Thank you.

Customer in Kingston Upon Thames, 16 October 2009

Sorted out two leaking loos, installed an outside tap and flushed out the central heating system 9.7 / 10

Very straightforward and pleasant to deal with. Quotes were fine, extra work found during the visit was done with no fuss and sensible charges for materials. I gave them 9 for workmanship because a couple of minor problems had to be sorted with a return visit, which was done promptly and courteously, and 9 for value because I didn't get any other quotes. Customer in Kingston Upon Thames, 1 October 2009

Repaired leaking pipe on vanity basin 9.6 / 10

We originally called Ian out as an emergency when a pipe was leaking and he arrived within the hour promised and dealt with the immediate problem. He was not able to make repairs at that time. However, his apprentice Nick has just completed the repair very satisfactorily in the time promised. He was extremely polite and respectful and completed the job most satisfactorily. I would not hesitate to use this company again. Customer in New Malden, 22 September 2009
