If only every company was this good! We can't fault them at all in every aspect of the build. Their knowledge, skill and attention to detail is unsurpassable, and their quote was very reasonable.

We have had so many comments about the quality of the work, they even fixed my DIY failures without even asking, they just saw a problem and fixed it!

The site was always cleaned each day and we had no problems trusting them in the house alone.

If you are looking for a builder then look no further, you wont be disappointed. We will always use these guys for our future work and will recommend them to everyone.

Just make sure you have a constant supply of coffee and cake! Customer in Pevensey, 26 February 2010

Loft conversion and kitchen extension

A very reliable company with professional tradesmen.

The work was of good quality with good advice all the way through the 2 projects we had done in our house.

Paul and Lynden were always on time and courteous, leaving the area tidy at the end of each day. They were always happy to discuss any queries we had and even after the work was completed, they came back promptly to do some minor adjustments.

We would strongly recommend this company and wouldn't hesitate to use them again. Customer in Battle, 1 August 2009
