Clearing mice under suspended timber flooring 10 / 10
After a neighbour took down an ancient shed we became aware of scratching sounds. It turned out mice from the neighbour's shed had taken up residence under our floor through the air bricks. We had used Eradipest before on an unrelated issue, when they swiftly succeeded in clearing a long standing rat problem which numerous other firms and council pest control had failed to solve. Eradipest is the only firm I would ever use or recommend for pest control. We were lucky to have found a real expert in Martin. We had exactly the same highly professional service as the first time. Not only is Martin a real expert but he is thorough and kind and really inspires confidence that he will resolve any problem, which is so important when you are feeling worried about a pest problem. This is an excellent firm and Martin is a real expert and I am genuinely happy to recommend this firm because they really will solve your problem. Customer in Camberley, 11 January 2012
