Annual Remeha Combi Boiler Service 10 / 10

Contacted GL Services Ltd to service the boiler. They visited at an agreed date and time, replaced the faulty pressure gauge and serviced the boiler. We were able to leave Tom to work away whilst we were out of the house. We came back to a detailed description of the service and invoice (which we could pay online). House was left clean and tidy after the work had been completed. We would recommend GL Services to everyone. We have a high level of customer satisfaction and GL Services haven't let us down.
