Ceiling and wall insulation, plaster finish and tiling

10 / 10

This is the second lot of work that Michael and the boys have done for us, I really can't fault anything they have done. Their workmanship is superb, they tidy up after themselves and as long as you keep them with Hob Nob biscuits, they're happy! Once they start a job, they stay with it until it's finished. From quotation to finish of work, there were no 'nasty surprises' and we would highly recommend this company. Customer in Hove, 2 November 2011
