Clearing the garden and preparation for spring planting

10 / 10

All done to a very high quality - Richard transformed the garden from its sad-looking post-winter state to a tidy and very well-prepared canvas for starting all over again! He pruned everything that needed it (including overgrown trees) and removed all the dead plants; weeded and dug over the flowerbeds; and cleaned up neatly afterwards, leaving the garden and patio looking as good as new. Altogether prompt, hardworking and professional. Customer in Brighton, 12 March 2012
