Replaced Hot Water Cylinder

I had a disaster on Saturday as my old hot water cylinder had leaked on Friday night in the kitchen. I called Ian on the Saturday morning and he came in the afternoon to check the problem before ordering a new tank. I knew, from his personality that he was genuine and wasn't going to "rip me off"!! He turned up on Monday morning exactly at 9:30 as agreed with the new tank. He was tidy, professional and clearly knows his trade. Very impressed with the service and will definitely use him again should the need arise. Don't bother looking anywhere else! Customer in Basingstoke, 24 January 2012
