Very pleased with the work Peter and his team carried out in our garden. They have transformed our garden to a very high standard. Peter kept me informed every step of the way and I found his team very hard working and polite. I would not hesitate to recommend to my friends. Customer in London, 5 May 2012

New Driveway - Block paving

10 / 10

All the work was carried out to a high degree and Peter's team were very punctual and hard working. The gentleman who cleared out front garden worked extremley hard and neighbours commented about the professionalism and quickness of his work. The brick layers have done a very professional job too with such a large space to cover. Created a little pattern on the drive off his own accord which we are very happy with. Peters communication is spot on and always very helpful. I would 100% recommend Peter to my friends (and have done so already) and will contact him in the future when I want my back garden done Customer in West Wickham, 9 March 2012
