Household moving

10 / 10

John and John were Super friendly, super fast, super professional and super competent. I can't recommend them highly enough. Our property was well off the road and had a staircase that would make a mountain climber sweat but the guys managed with ease. Moving is always a stressful thing but they made it a much easier process. Customer in Burgess Hill, 1 May 2012

House move

10 / 10

I was quoted an 'all in, no extras' price for 2 men and a Luton van for a full morning and that's what I got. The men arrived exactly on time, worked continuously and feverishly and were extremely pleasant and polite throughout. I would recommend them to anyone and would definitely use them again. Customer in Hove, 14 March 2012

Move from flat to 4 storey house

10 / 10

There are plenty of comments to agree with mine. John and John were timely, quick, polite. Barely paused for a drink. They were careful with goods and the place we were leaving. We overran based on my estimations but were happy to return to the flat, which was just round the corner, to finish off. John understands what it means to deliver a professional service. They are not all the same. Customer in Brighton, 23 February 2012

House Removal Quote

10 / 10

I requested quote for removal required on 24 February, but unfortunately John was fully booked on that day. However, he was extremely obliging in attempting to help me, and could provide service on 23 February. His quote was very reasonable, and I was confident there would not be any other charges. Regrettably, I couldn't co-ordinate everything to be able to move on 23rd. I was disappointed that I could not arrange the removal through John, as he was prompt with responses to my questions, and very understanding regarding the situation I was in, which left me with the impression he would have provided a very reliable service. Customer in Heathfield, 23 February 2012

Removed and delivered two sofas to another address where they had to remove and dispose of a sofa bed and armchair

10 / 10

I booked the services of Man and Van Sussex the same morning of the move after being let down by another delivery company. My request was dealt with swiftly and efficiently by John Baxter and I was told two men and a van would be with me by eleven am. They arrived ten minutes earlier than stated. Nick and John were terrific - polite and good humoured and very efficient and the whole move went very smoothly. I have no hesitation in recommending this company very highly and will definitely be using them again. Customer in Brighton, 21 February 2012
