Garage Conversion and Kitchen Alterations 10 / 10

Myself and my wife are delighted by the work, the finish is just as we would have wanted it to be and this is largely due to not only Neil and his team's delivery, but also through the help and advice he gave us along the way, which was crucial in the overall success of the project. Not only would I recommend Neil and his team to my friends and family, I will be suggesting that they look into any jobs that need doing and contact them, as we are delighted with the outcome both in terms of quality and price. Customer in Basingstoke, 15 April 2012
