Most Recent Customer Feedback

A repeat visit when my pipes froze in the loft

10 / 10

Nerim visited late one evening, applied some lagging to the pipes in the loft; and refused any payment. What a great guy, thank you. He has been brilliant every time he has completed work for me - this is the third time. He is totally conscientious; and really cares about after-sales service. Customer in Hornchurch, 2 March 2012

Gap and plumbing work

10 / 10

Lovely workman, recommend and have no problem recommending. Give good advice, as the best correct materials to use which was important to us. Customer in London, 20 February 2012

Power flush and new boiler installation.

10 / 10

Very good and worked very hard. Customer in London, 12 January 2012

Installation of boiler and gas cooker

10 / 10

I was very pleased with the work done by Nerim and his colleagues which included installing a new combination boiler and a couple of new radiators. When it turned out that I also needed to install a new gas cooker he drove me to a local branch of Curry's, helped me choose a new cooker, and installed it for a reasonable price. When one of my existing radiators sprang a leak a few days later he came to fix the problem within the day. I would recommend NR Heating to anyone. Thanks Nerim. Customer in Ilford, 3 January 2012
