Excellent service. I would recommend this company. Customer in Worthing, 4 April 2012

An urgent repair to our gas boiler.

10 / 10

I have used this firm for many years. They are reliable and provide good service with experienced and competent staff. Customer in Worthing, 20 January 2012

Leaking pipes under sink

10 / 10

Outstanding service from call out to completion just over an hour, my first experience with this firm but well known locally and for good reason. Engineers were polite, timely and friendly, work was relevant and explained with suggestions for long term remedial action. About the best example of great customer service I have experienced in a long time, will definitely use them again. Customer in Worthing, 22 December 2011

New central heating and 1 radiator feed and expansion tank cold water into tank.
