Most Recent Customer Feedback

Faulty thermostats

9.5 / 10

Had thought 2 radiator thermostats were faulty but in fact it was just the pins had stuck. Steve explained in detail how this occurs and has shown me how to deal with it if it happens again. Excellent communication. Customer in Leatherhead, 3 February 2012

Supply and fit circuit board for Potterton Kingfisher boiler

10 / 10

Identified the problem swiftly and repaired quickly and efficiently. Very courteous and pleasant. Customer in Leatherhead, 30 January 2012

Emergency repair of a boiler

10 / 10

Steve has done various repair jobs for me over the past few years and has always been tidy, punctual and efficient. This time I had to call him out because my boiler had suddenly given up the ghost. He responded within 30 minutes to a very early morning call, came round immediately, diagnosed the problem and was back with the part to fix it - all within the same morning! Customer in Leatherhead, 14 January 2012

Supplied and fitted new central heating thermostat

9.5 / 10

Made initial visit at short notice to diagnose problem with our central heating. Returned when he said he would to fit new thermostat. Very polite, took shoes off at door without being asked to avoid treading dirt in house. Job completed quickly and efficiently at price quoted. Customer in Leatherhead, 3 January 2012

Annual boiler and system service
