Back boiler service

This was the first time I used this company. But I am glad I did, they arrived and were very polite and serviced the boiler very professionally, they were clean when doing the work. Also very helpful as they noticed that when I last had the boiler serviced the company that I used then did not put it back together correctly. And Regis Heating put it right for me. I would recommend this company to anyone and have booked them to come and service another gas fire. THIS IS A GOOD COMPANY. And thank you, great service. Customer in Bognor Regis, 11 November 2011
