We are so pleased that we found Richard and Stephen! Richard gave us plenty of options of how to complete our project when he first visited us. He suggested things that we wouldn't have thought of ourselves but are really helpful to everyday living now. All work was carried out in a tidy and efficient manner and we were kept informed throughout the process. We would highly recommend this Father and Son team. Customer in Godalming, 14 April 2012
