New kitchen and replacement central heating

10 / 10

Richard and Katie had previously installed a new bathroom last year and we had no hesitation whatsoever in asking them to install our new kitchen and heating system. Richard and Katie are very friendly and courteous, a pleasure to have in our house. Their advice is always sound and Richard's eye for detail has again resulted in workmanship to a very high standard. We would not hesitate to once again recommend RJB to anyone who wants excellent skills, workmanship, communication and thoroughness. Customer in Portsmouth, 1 August 2011
