Chimney breast in the kitchen opened up and plastered 10 / 10
Sam opened up the chimney breast in my kitchen, inserted a lintel, bricked up the sides then plastered the inside. The finished job was excellent, even better than I had originally envisaged. Sam came around at short notice, booked the job in very quickly and completed the job within the day. He quoted an excellent price and stuck to it. He was trustworthy, friendly and a pleasure to have in the house. I would highly recommend him to all checkatrade users. Many thanks Sam :o) Customer in Bournemouth, 22 August 2011
