Home intruder alarm installation

10 / 10

Vince explained everything very clearly when he first came to look at the job in order to submit his price. His price seemed fair (we obtained three quotations) and his quotation was issued promptly and work done efficiently and quickly. He clearly cares about his company's reputation and is keen to ensure his customers are happy with his service. It was a pleasure to have him install our alarm. Customer in Cranleigh, 7 January 2012

New Alarm Systems installed

8 / 10

Vince quoted for the alarm system but arrived late on the agreed date for installation, there were some issues which meant the installation was not completed in the initial 2 days and a further visit the following week was needed. Issues with the configuration settings meant that the system still couldn't be used for a further week after this and unfortunately I didn't hear from Vince in this time and had to chase this up myself again. Overall this was more complex and time consuming than I had anticipated and the customer experience wasn't the best. All fitted and working before Christmas though. Customer in Fleet, 25 November 2011
