Complete refit of kitchen and cloakroom including plumbing, electrics, plastering, decorating and fitting new units

9.8 / 10

Nick did a fantastic job at refitting my kitchen and cloakroom - the end result was exactly what I wanted. He gave me lots of useful advice on where to buy my units and all the accessories from which I found extremely helpful. Nick started the job on schedule and kept me fully informed throughout, and all aspects of the project were completed well including all the small details. Despite the frustrations that kitchens can throw at you, Nick always had a smile on his face and a joke or two and even put up with me hovering around on my days off! I have already recommended him to others and requested quotes for further work. And his prices are good too. Thanks Nick - good job! Customer in Peacehaven, 3 December 2011
