Garden wall

10 / 10

You hear such horror stories about builders that it's a joy to recommend one like John. He works solidly, without fuss, making no demands on clients and does excellent work. He provides accurate estimates in the first place - which makes a change - and keeps clients informed about progress, deliveries - about everything relevant to the job. This is the second piece of work he's done for us - if we had any more, we know exactly who we'd go to. Customer in Brighton, 10 January 2012

Very good, the estimate was the lowest, the final bill lower still. An excellent piece of work. Customer in Brighton, 11 May 2011
