Repair of lintel and subsequent replacement of zinc tray and treatment of damp 10 / 10

My original request was for a lintel repair, for which Terry estimated, but he also warned me that there might be an underlying problem once he has removed the lintel. There was, I was kept fully informed, and he was able to fix, continue the job until the next day (a Saturday) to get it finished. I was very pleased with the tidiness and general attitude to the work. Customer in Portsmouth, 5 August 2011

Complete Bathroom renovation 10 / 10

Very professional, clean and tidy. Friendly guys who did exactly what it said on the tin. From the stripping out, through the re-plastering, fitting the new suite and decorating a great job. Using other professionals where appropriate the project was managed in a timely manner with little disruption to the household. Will use them again for the next project - Kitchen / Dining room conversion. Would recommend without reservation. Customer in Portsmouth, 16 April 2011

Bathroom and cloakroom refurb and new consumer board and building works. 10 / 10

Very good work, good quality bath / sink / toilet placed in bathrooms. Would recommend to anyone, want them to do kitchen soon. Customer in Portsmouth, 1 April 2011

Enlarge current bathroom retile and refit 10 / 10

Absolutely excellent. We had a small bathroom that required stripping extending replastering retiling and refitting. We have been at this house for 28 years and this was to be the most important (and expensive) job we've had done. We are extremely pleased not only with the final result, but with the way the whole business was conducted. Terry kept us informed every step of the way, Jamie was a grafter and an excellent plasterer. I would recommend this company to anyone. Customer in Portsmouth, 1 March 2011

Total kitchen refurbishment including plastering to walls and ceiling and new electrics 10 / 10

From the first visit Terry put my mind at rest, his estimate was fair and accurate. He was confident and clearly knew what he was doing. The workmanship and standard of all the trades attending was second to none. Everyone was polite and tidy, and time keeping was very good. There was also very good communication and small problems that arose as the work progressed were easily resolved. It is clear that Terry is very knowledgeable with building work. I will use TLM Property Maintenance again and would highly recommend them to others. Customer in Lee-on-the-Solent, 28 February 2011
