Fixed central heating problem

10 / 10

We moved into a house in March which had been empty for a while and most of the downstairs radiators would not work. It was a real mystery as to why and Gary worked tirelessly to get to the bottom of the problem and get it fixed. We are now cosy again and thankful. Gary was polite, got back to my calls straight away and got the job done with minimum fuss. Excellent job! I would not hesitate in recommending Gary at WHH. Customer in Brighton, 24 April 2012

Installation of new gas boiler.

Neat and tidy. Hardworking, reliable. Customer in Brighton, 22 March 2012

Leak in Central Heating

10 / 10

We had a leak from the central heating. Having had Gary do another job I called him for help. He responded very quickly and sorted out the problem including relaying floorboards and carpets. Even though it was an emergency call-out and no previous quote had been given his charge was very reasonable and I was more than happy with the work and the price. Customer in Lancing, 9 March 2012

Replace Boiler

10 / 10

Gary checked out the job and gave me a very competitive, and detailed, quote for the work required. He also identified another problem not directly connected with the job. He carried out the work very promptly and efficiently and made every effort to minimise any disturbance to us. I would highly recommend him. Customer in Lancing, 1 March 2012

Mended leaking toilet

10 / 10

I was very happy with the promptness of visit, the work done, the price, the friendly attitude of Gary, and will certainly be using WHH again when needed. A real find! Customer in Hove, 27 February 2012
