Creating new front entrance steps, pillars, walls and landscaping 10 / 10
We are delighted by the work done by this company. David Jones was a pleasure to work with. He created a design and used materials which were entirely in keeping with our Georgian property, going to the trouble to source materials from a reclamation yard to ensure they matched. The company employs real craftsman who executed the design with great skill and care. They were polite and careful, causing the minimum disruption and inconvenience. We intend to use this company to carry out more work for us. Customer in Liphook, 5 June 2016
