Called out to look at dishwasher which had broken down 10 / 10
Used Darren's company before and would highly recommend. His member of staff was very polite, courteous and the total cost payable was very reasonable. Darren informed me of possible costs etc at the time of booking the appointment which was really helpful. The member of staff explained very clearly what the problem was, remedied it for us but sadly our old dishwasher was deemed not worth spending money on required parts, which we appreciated being informed of and which kept the cost down for us. Thanks very much. Customer in Ferndown, 9 March 2018
