Whole house was re plumbed, new boiler, bathroom and new cloakroom 10 / 10

IHeat are a refreshingly keen and professional outfit. They're such good company to be around and are a pleasure to have in my home. My mates who are plumbers (who didn't have time as too big of a job) had a look for me for my own reassurance and they both said iheat use good quality products and they know exactly what there doing and charge a fair rate. I got their number from a colleague at work and I have no problem recommending Daniel and Richard they're brilliant. Customer in Eastleigh, 1 November 2016

Installation of new boiler system. 10 / 10

Arrived first thing in the morning on the agreed date, worked extremely efficiently and when completed explained how the new system worked. We were very happy with the finished job and would be happy to recommend them. Customer in Romsey, 3 August 2016

Fitting a new central heating boiler 10 / 10

The guys from the company came out first on an emergency call and diagnosed that our old boiler had died permanently. They pulled out the stops to get us a new one much more quickly than the other company who usually dealt with us. They were very neat and careful about not making a mess. We will use them for our future maintenance and service.
