Recent Customer Feedback

Stripped lean to roof, re-felt and batton work.

10 / 10

Water had soaked through roof and I found Matthew on Checkatrade. They were able to do the work almost immediately, which I was grateful for. Work was done to a high standard and I'd definitely recommend this company.

Replacement slate roof, soffit and guttering

Generally the work on the roof is ok but the fixings for the down pipes and guttering came apart a short time after completion and will need extra brackets fixing and putting back together. Customer in Bournemouth, 1 July 2015

Reply from Trader: We would like to thank this customer for leaving feedback. In Regards to the comments left I find these unfair. Although this customer paid for half the work he didn't employ me and the gentleman that did is 100% happy with the work. I'm dedicated to my business and have full trust in the work I do. The work completed here I feel was at a very high standard and would be proud to show people. I've tried to contact the customer to discuss the issues he pointed out but have been unsuccessful to get through but will keep trying. The guttering was perfect and had no problems when I finished the job, as for the down pipes the customer nudged them when parking his car which is what made the fixings come apart slightly. I ask for you to read my other comments for a true reflection of my work.
